In this issue:

1. Three happy, inspiring graduations
2. Accomplishments which make us proud
3. Fall golf on a great course, plus PGA Sr. Tour

Above: A happy moment at Domus Academy's graduation

1. Graduations: What we look forward to all year long

Bullying may be an issue in any school hallway in America, but it was strikingly absent from each of our graduations. There was so much cheering and clapping, our guests thought they were at a Yankees game! Parents and staff were overcome with love for what these youth have accomplished. If you couldn't join us, browse our graduation photo galleries for each school: Domus Academy, Stamford Academy, & Trailblazers Academy. A great way to end the school year!

2. Accomplishments which make us proud

A whopping 91% of Stamford Academy graduates received an acceptance letter to the post-secondary institution of their choice. Domus Academy youth improved more than two grade levels in both reading and math this year. And last but
