1. Run for the Roses Gala a huge success!

Our May 7th spring gala was a smash! Early photos from the night are in, and more pix are coming soon; watch our Facebook page (you don't need a Facebook account) for a link. Our committee and volunteers were amazing, as was our board of directors (naturally!). Many thanks to our sponsors who make our work possible: GE Capital, Vitech Systems Group Inc, NAGI Jewelers, Mary Pedersen, Pitney Bowes, Building & Land Technologies and Harbor Point, Malkin Properties and Malkin Construction, U.S. Trust, and WCAS Fraser Sullivan Investment Management, LLC.

2. Passages Group Home Open House 5/17/11

Join us Tuesday anytime between 8am and 10am for breakfast and a tour of our new Passages group home at 929 Newfield Avenue in Stamford (directly across from Trinity Catholic HS). Take 10 minutes to hear about how we provide a loving, structured home to boys who'd otherwise be homeless--you won't regret it.

3. Mentoring nonprofit FUTURE 5 now part of Domus!

We're excited to announce innovative mentoring/coaching nonprofit FUTURE 5 is now a program of Domus. Mentoring someone is lots of pressure; the F5 approach spreads that responsibility across five people instead of just one. WIN! Visit the F5 Web site for more information.

4. Domus featured in CPTV education

documentary

Connecticut Public Television's latest documentary, Education Vs.

Prison: The Real Cost Of Failing Our Kids, features our educational work with very struggling youth involved in the justice system who still have tremendous potential for success. Watch the trailer here, which also lists the next air dates and times (5/17 and 5/22).
