

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH.

---

Things are unequal.
Children are born into suffering and poverty. By luck, that wasn't you.

What can you do about it?

Attend the  DOMUS

Social Justice Leadership Academy

- Explore the root causes of poverty, income equality, and more with experts from those fields—people doing the work right now.
- Discuss with your peers ways you can make an impact by doing things like volunteering your time.
- Engage in hands-on activities that bring these social justice issues to life.
- Make financial investments in high-quality nonprofits.

Who: Teens entering 10th, 11th, 12th grades and college students

When: Saturday, June 10, 2017; 9:00a to 4:00p

Where: The Domus campus @ 83 Lockwood Avenue, Stamford

Bring: Philanthropy dollars to invest: $25 to $100.

We will provide all food and supplies.

Why Domus? Domus is a Stamford-based nonprofit created in 1972 to help the region's most vulnerable children. We started with a home for 7 homeless boys and now help over 1,200 traumatized, neglected, or struggling boys and girls in our schools, home, and community programs.

Definition of Social Justice: the view that everyone deserves equal economic, political, and social rights and opportunities. Social justice efforts aim to open the doors of access and opportunity for everyone, particularly those in greatest need. To register contact Julia Wade jwade@domuskids.org