

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH.

Things are unequal.
Children are born into suffering and poverty. By luck, that wasn't you.

What can you do about it?

Attend the  DOMUS

Social Justice Leadership Academy

- Explore the root causes of poverty, income equality, and more with experts from those fields—people doing the work right now.
- Discuss with your peers ways you can make an impact by doing things like volunteering your time.
- Engage in hands-on activities that bring these social justice issues to life.
- Prepare a meal for our group home boys.
- Make a financial investment in high-quality nonprofits.

Why Domus? Domus is a Stamford-based nonprofit created in 1972 to help the region's most vulnerable children. We started with a home for 7 homeless boys and now help over 1,200 traumatized, neglected, or struggling boys and girls in our schools, home, and community programs.

Definition of Social Justice: the view that everyone deserves equal economic, political, and social rights and opportunities. Social justice efforts aim to open the doors of access and opportunity for everyone, particularly those in greatest need. To register contact Julia Wade jwade@domuskids.org
