END-OF-YEAR REPORT

WORK & LEARN - FISCAL YEAR 2026 (7/1/2025 - 6/30/2026)

About Work & Learn

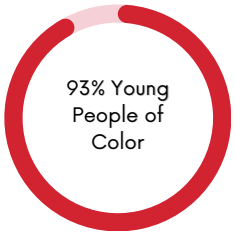

Domus' Work & Learn After-School program helps high school students build confidence, work readiness skills, and positive habits that support future employment and lifelong growth. Through engaging enrichment activities, practical learning experiences, and supportive relationships with trusted adults, participants strengthen communication, professionalism, teamwork, and problem-solving skills in a safe and encouraging environment.

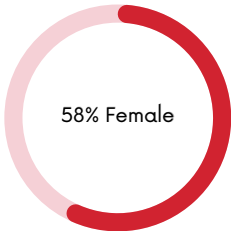

The program operates during three 11-week school-year sessions and one six-week summer session. Participants receive a stipend while taking part in interactive learning experiences. Several after-school instructors are former Domus participants who now return to share their talents and experiences, demonstrating how meaningful relationships and opportunities can have a lasting impact.

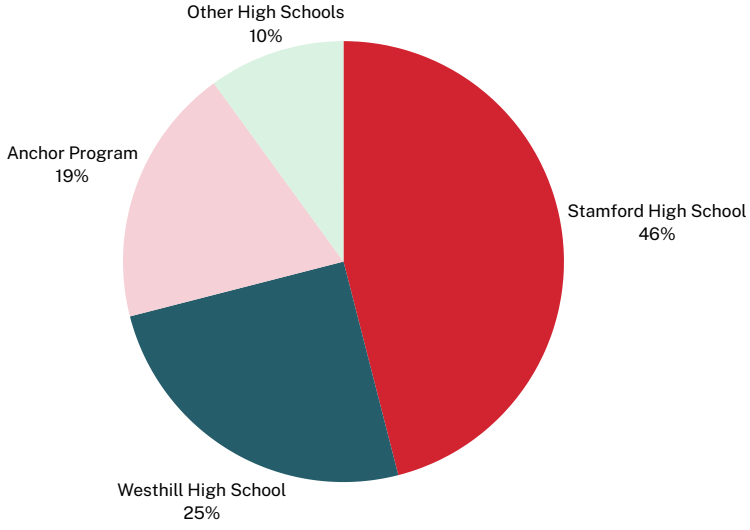

The Young People We Serve

Work & Learn serves high school students from across Stamford, bringing together young people from a variety of schools, backgrounds, and experiences.

How Domus Engages for Success

Guided by the Domus Relational Model, trusted adults create an environment where young people feel connected, supported, and empowered to grow in a loving after-school environment.

Throughout the year, participants engaged in:

- Work readiness classes focused on communication, goal setting, financial literacy, resume development, interviewing, and professional skills.
- Hands-on enrichment opportunities including culinary arts, painting, music production, and hair techniques.
- Meaningful relationships with caring adults who provide guidance, accountability, and encouragement throughout the program.
